

NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

3108 Columbia Pike, Suite 300
Arlington, VA 22204-4370

703-525-0050 800-473-0060
Fax 703-525-0052

National Genealogical Society Membership Fact Sheet

National Genealogical Society (NGS) Membership Information

The National Genealogical Society is a non-profit organization founded in 1903. Membership with NGS offers a number of benefits to help genealogical researchers by providing skill development through education, publications, conferences, and networking opportunities. Discounts are offered on all services and products.

In February 2017, NGS had nearly 10,000 members throughout the US and a small number internationally made up of:

- more than 9,600 individual members and life members
- more than 500 organizations

Individual Member and Life Member Benefits:

- four issues per year of the educational NGS Magazine
- four issues per year of the journal of genealogical scholarship, the National Genealogical Society Quarterly (NGSQ)
- Access to the member's only section of the NGS website, which includes:
  - NGSQ (Currently, all issues 1978–present are online.)
  - NGSQ online index (1912–present)
  - NGS Magazine (2005–current are online)
- Monthly digital publication, NGS Monthly with articles on methodology, research resources and the latest NGS member news.
- An optional subscription to the NGS blog Upfront with NGS to stay current with new developments and research opportunities in the genealogical community.
- Online courses for building family history research skills geared to various levels of experience and knowledge, including:

For Generations Past, Present, and Future

- American Genealogical Studies, a multi component track that covers different types of genealogical topics and research skills
- Continuing Genealogical Studies, self-paced, independent learning courses that focus on subjects that help further research.
- Free course in genealogy basics
- Free Family History Skills course
- Free worksheets and forms to aid in the organization and analysis of family history research.
- Exclusive member videos, including the acclaimed series Voices of Genealogy featuring interviews with leading scholars in the field of genealogy.
- Online databases unique to NGS:
  - The National Intelligencer, 1800–1850;
  - NGS Bible records
  - NGS Member Ancestry Charts (MACs)
- Annual dues $65.00 per year
- Life Membership dues $2,500.00

An Additional Family Member living at the same address as individual or life members receives all benefits, except no print copies of the publications. Annual dues are $15.00.

In addition, members are entitled to discounts on:

- Conference registration for the annual NGS Family History Conference
- Research trips
- Publications such as the Research in the States guides and legacy publications
- Online Courses in a college style LMS, Canvas, with graded and ungraded options
- Courses on CD-ROM

The National Genealogical Society has a number of courses available under the American Genealogical Studies banner. Courses include:

- The Basics
- Guide to Documentation and Source Citation
- Beyond the Basics
- Branching Out

Continuing Genealogical Studies:

For Generations Past, Present, and Future

- Genetic Genealogy, the Basics
- Genetic Genealogy: Autosomal DNA
- Effective Use of Deeds
- Researching Your Revolutionary War Ancestors
- Introduction to Civil War Research
- Researching Your World War I Ancestors

PDF Format

- Introduction to Religious Records
- Using Federal Population Census Schedules in Genealogical Research

The National Genealogical Society also sponsors guided genealogical trips to Salt Lake City, Utah, Washington, D.C., and Madison, Wisconsin, with professional consultants.

In Madison, researchers use the genealogical resources at The Wisconsin Historical Society Library and Archives and the Max Kade Institute for German-American Studies.

- Madison, WI – 4-28 July 2017

In Washington, D.C., researchers use the genealogical resources at the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Library, and the Library of Congress (LOC).

- Washington, D.C. – 29 October – 4 November 2017

In Salt Lake City, researchers use the genealogical resources of the Family History Library.

- Salt Lake City, UT – 28 January – 4 February 2018

Organizational Subscriber Benefits:

NGS also offers organizational subscriptions to libraries, societies, and family associations for $50 per year. Benefits for subscribing organizations

- Receive four issues each of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly and NGS Magazine
- May send three representatives to the annual NGS Family History Conference at the individual member discount rate
- May send a representative on research trips at the individual member discount rate

For Generations Past, Present, and Future

- List events on the NGS website Events Calendar
- Purchase books at individual member discount prices
- Are eligible to receive free literature and a door prize for their society events
- May enter the annual NGS Newsletter Competition

For more information on individual membership and NGS's benefits please visit our website:

http://www.ngsgenealogy.org/cs/individual\_member\_benefits.