National Genealogical Society October Video Releases

ARLINGTON, VA, 7 OCTOBER 2011: The National Genealogical Society has released two new videos in the month of October. Both videos are produced by Kate Geis and Allen Moore.

Available to the Public on the NGS Website and Available to the Public on YouTube:

The National Genealogical Society online interview series and the NGS Genealogy channel on YouTube present NGS & The Board for Certification of Genealogists, with Laura DeGrazia, CG, past president of the Board for Certification of Genealogists and co-editor of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record. Laura reflects on how the National Genealogical Society and the Board for Certification of Genealogists support genealogists in their efforts to produce quality genealogies. The video is available for viewing on the videos page of the National Genealogical Society website at http://www.ngsgenealogy.org/cs/videos_online and on the NGS Genealogy channel on YouTube at <http://www.youtube.com/user/NGSGenealogy>.

Available to NGS Members on the NGS Website:

The October video offering for members from the National Genealogical Society is Finding My Genealogy Family with Pamela Boyer Sayre, CG, CGL. In this video Pam discusses the joy of belonging to the genealogical community. This video is for viewing by National Genealogical Society members at the NGS website. Log in at <http://www.ngsgenealogy.org>, click on the Members Only tab, and then click on NGS Videos in the sidebar menu. Members who missed earlier releases can also enjoy conversations with Thomas Adams, Jan Alpert, Leslie Anderson, Laura DeGrazia, Helen Leary, Elizabeth Shown Mills, Thomas Shawker, David Rencher, Thomas W. Jones, and Will White in the members' area.

Founded in 1903, the National Genealogical Society is dedicated to genealogy education, high research standards, and the preservation of genealogical records. The Arlington, VA-based nonprofit is the premier national society for everyone, from the beginner to the most advanced family historian, seeking excellence in publications, educational offerings, research guidance, and opportunities to interact with other genealogists.
