Tuesday, 12 May Special Day-Long Workshops

There's still time to sign up for in-depth workshops on Tuesday, 12 May 2015, prior to the NGS Family History Conference. The BCG Education Fund workshop, Putting Skills to Work, runs from 8:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and German Studies: Understanding German Records and Methodology runs from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Librarian's Day, an annual event sponsored by ProQuest, will focus on an essential issue for today's institutions, Providing Access to Genealogical Research in a Digital World. For more information, please see <http://conference.ngsgenealogy.org/program>. Registration for workshops and Librarian's Day closes on 29 April 2015.

Live Streaming

If you are unable to attend the NGS 2015 Family History Conference, ten lectures featuring some of the most popular topics and nationally known speakers will be available to you via live streaming. Details about viewing the live streaming program and the costs can be found at <http://conference.ngsgenealogy.org/attend/live-streaming/>. Registration for the live streaming program closes on 29 April 2015.

Society Showcase

On Tuesday afternoon 12 May 2015, many Missouri genealogical and historical societies will be available in the St. Charles Convention Center from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. to answer questions about local repositories and resources, discuss their group's activities, and sell their publications.
